I should like to register my support for the Houghton draft NDP. It is a thoughtful document with regard to both the need to maintain the character of a rural village whilst recognising that change will need to happen as the needs of the community change. I was pleased to see in 1.10 that the rural nature of the village is recognised and any plans for further development are identified as needing to be small scale and replacement . The vision and objectives are realistic and recognise the needs of community as well as the natural and built environment. I was encouraged to read that any further development should be sustainable and small scale. I was also pleased to see detailed reference to preserving and supporting community services such as the allotments, village hall, pub etc. Keeping the character of a linear rural village which is clearly separated from its neighbours is very important in my view. The document sets out clearly how this can be achieved while being open to change. The protection of the various identified views also struck me as being extremely important both with regard to being able to enjoy the local area and also inform further plans, so that the atmosphere of the village is not impacted. The local green spaces are also identified with a view to preservation and again this contributes to the rural “feel” of the area as well as preventing overdevelopment.
