

Quick Bio.

Philip Lashbrook:

- Born in the wilds of Uganda
- Lived for his early years in the wilds of Africa and some of its most beautiful locations.
- Worked as a Game Park Manager, until seriously injured.
- Hates poachers with a passion.
- Moved to the UK and studied advertising and marketing rising to a successful position in the City.
- Married Linda and had a son, Peter, and a daughter, Anne.
- Has 2 cats, Minnie and Monty.
- Switched to a career stream in science and technology, where he ended his days as a consultant.
- Became a qualified and registered Switzerland Specialist.
- Phil retired and took up community-based work
- Served as a parish councillor for several years.
- Spent several years as a secondary school governor.
- Enjoyed a number of years as a member of the Independent Advisory Panel to the Army Air Corp.
- Became a Borough Councillor in 2001.
- Initially served on Overview and Scrutiny and Northern Area Planning.
- Subsequently served on Northern Area Planning, Licensing and Test Valley Road Safety.
- Appointed Chairman of the Test Valley Community Resilience Forum.
- Appointed as TVBC Resilience Champion.
- Currently Phil serves on Northern Area Planning, Licensing, Road Safety, Community Safety, Hampshire Police and Crime and Emergency Resilience.
- Became a qualified and licensed drone pilot of a commercial drone in 2022.
- Elected to be Deputy Mayor in 2022.