West Tytherley, Frenchmoor and Buckholt Parish Profile

This profile provides a summary of the latest available information on the demographic make-up of the parishes of West Tytherley, Frenchmoor and Buckholt within Test Valley. It looks at information on topics such as the population structure, economic, housing, health and educational information for the three parishes. Whilst each are separate parishes, they share a Common Parish Council that represents and serves the needs of all three collectively.

West Tytherley, Frenchmoor and Buckholt are three of the Test Valley's fifty-nine parishes. West Tytherley has an area of 1180.36 hectares, whilst Frenchmoor and Buckholt have an area of 153.81 and 350.42 hectares respectively; together they cover 1684.59 hectares. Collectively, they represent 2.68% of the area of Test Valley. In terms of size West Tytherley is Test Valley's nineteenth largest parish whilst Buckholt is the fifty-fourth largest parish. Frenchmoor is the smallest parish in Test Valley, ranking fifty-ninth. Together, their population is 612 and their population density is 0.28 people per hectare, which is lower than the borough's average population density of 2.10 people per hectare.

Census Data

Some of the data used in this profile is taken from the 2011 Census; where this is the case, this is clearly labelled. Whilst the Office for National Statistics makes this data available down to parish level, it does not publish this information for smaller populations, so to avoid risking identifying individual respondents to the Census. As such, the information from the 2011 Census is only available for West Tytherley; where this is the case, it will clearly only refer to West Tytherley and not Frenchmoor or Buckholt. If you have any questions or queries, please contact the Policy Team at Test Valley Borough Council using the contact information on the final page.

Though this data is from several years ago, the breadth and volume of information the Census collects means it remains a valuable source of data and a reasonable indication of current trends. Data from the 2021 Census will be released by the Office for National Statistics in 2022/3. When this happens, this profile will be updated and circulated to Councillors.

Deprivation

The English Index of Multiple Deprivation 2019 is designed to identify areas where communities lack resources and are in need. To do this, seven factors are considered, which are:

- income deprivation;
- employment deprivation;
- education, skills and training deprivation;
- health deprivation and disability;
- crime;
- barriers to housing and services;
- living environment deprivation.

Areas are scored on each of these factors, and ranked nationally from least deprived to most deprived.

This map shows the deprivation scores for the parishes of West Tytherley, Frenchmoor and Buckholt against all areas in Test Valley. Of 32,844 areas ranked across the country, West Tytherley, Frenchmoor and Buckholt rank 20,031st. This puts the parishes in the 40% of least deprived areas in the country.

More specifically, the parishes rank in the top 10% of most deprived areas when it comes to physical proximity of local services. They are also in the top 10% of most deprived areas for its 'indoors' living environment; this is defined by the amount of houses with central heating as well as the proportion of social and private houses that are in a poor condition (as defined by the Decent Homes Standard).

Employment by sector

Following the Local Government Boundary Commission for England (LGBCE) review in 2017, new Ward and Parish boundaries have been introduced in Test Valley. Hence, this information has been produced on a 'best fit' basis, it's not an exact representation of West Tytherley, Frenchmoor and Buckholt, but provides as good an indication as is currently feasible.

This data is taken from the 2018 UK Business Register and Employment Survey which is produced by the Office for National Statistics (ONS). This dataset relies upon a sample of 85,000 businesses across the country, from which these estimates are modelled. As such, there will be some sampling variability which result in the quality of the estimates deteriorating for smaller geographies. A better indication will be available from the 2021 Census which will be available in 2022/3; once this data is released, this profile will be updated and circulated to Borough and Parish Councillors.

This graph shows the percentage of the workforce by sector, according latest Business Register and Employment Survey in 2018. The largest sector employing people in West Tytherley, Frenchmoor and Buckholt is Health (21.7%) followed by Construction (14.5%). Jointly in third-place are Manufacturing as well as Professional, Scientific & Technical, and finally Arts, Entertainment, Recreation & Other Services (all 10.9%).
