I have lived Chandlers Ford since 1957. CF was firmly within the borough of Eastleigh.

So much development has happened in the area but strategic gaps have always been maintained. This area of Velmore Farm is THE strategic gap between C F and Southampton.

Why do Test Valley use the furthest corners of their area to dump their housing? Well because it has infrastructure, services and connectivity- missing from much of Test Valley's expensive, protected rural areas. I'm not sure where this will be - Chilworth? Test V, CF, N Baddesley or Eastleigh?

My address is Eastleigh, my council tax goes to Test V and my MP is changing to Eastleigh.

Traffic concerns me greatly. Schools? Doctors? Dentists?

Building houses brings so much pressure on a community.

Last but not least flooding happens around this land, particularly at the roundabout identified as the only entry point to the development. It will only get worse!

Greed by developers and land owners does not justify breaking community boundaries. Think again Test Valley.
